Touch Screen Panel

Uses one watch winder space

Control Knob

We use the highest quality German manufactured watch winders. Control each winder with an individual knob or, for the ultimate in precision select the touch panel. From here you can manage all your winders in one place including individual control over the number, speed and direction of rotations. You can also optionally manage back lighting colour and tone.

KRYSTAL DISPLAY SAFE

Elegant Display, Uncompromising Protection

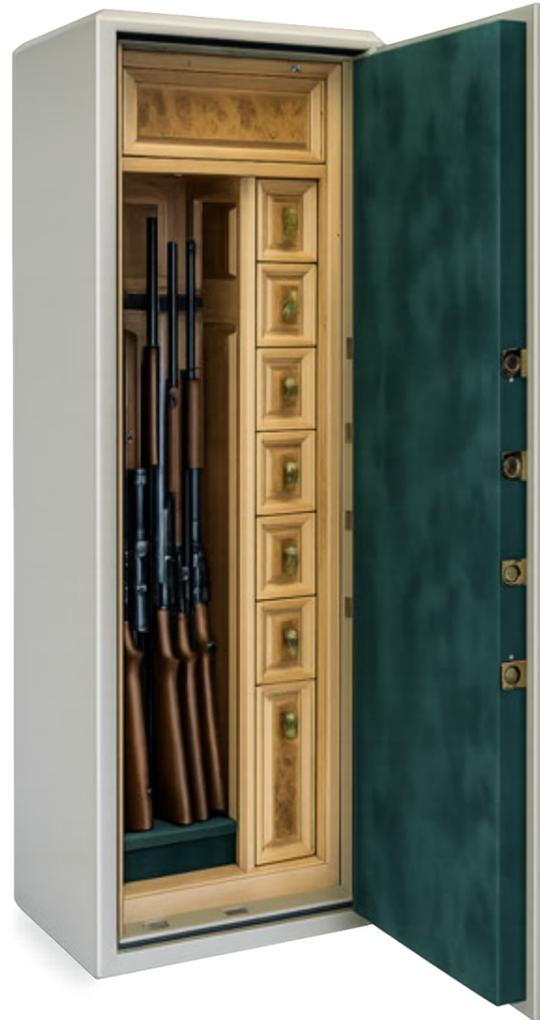

It's Krystal clear that our range of display safes is designed to showcase what matters most. From fine jewellery and luxury watches to antiques, special gun collections, and treasured objets d'art, each safe transforms security into a statement piece. Thoughtful craftsmanship and meticulous attention to detail create a seamless balance between refined aesthetics and robust protection – enhancing the character of any room.

Beyond beauty, the Krystal Display Safe delivers serious defence.

The high-performance glass is engineered to resist bullets, axes, sledgehammers, grinders, drilling, and torch attacks, offering complete peace of mind while your valuables remain proudly on display.

Got something larger to secure such as shot guns & rifles, handbags & shoes, artwork & antiques, wine & whiskey?

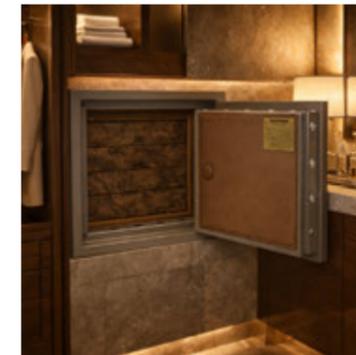

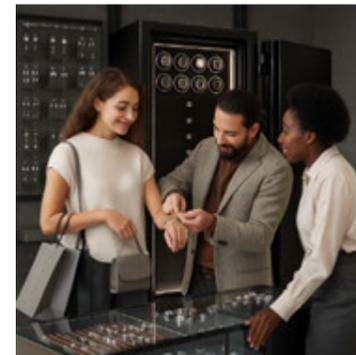

We can create a bespoke solution for you.

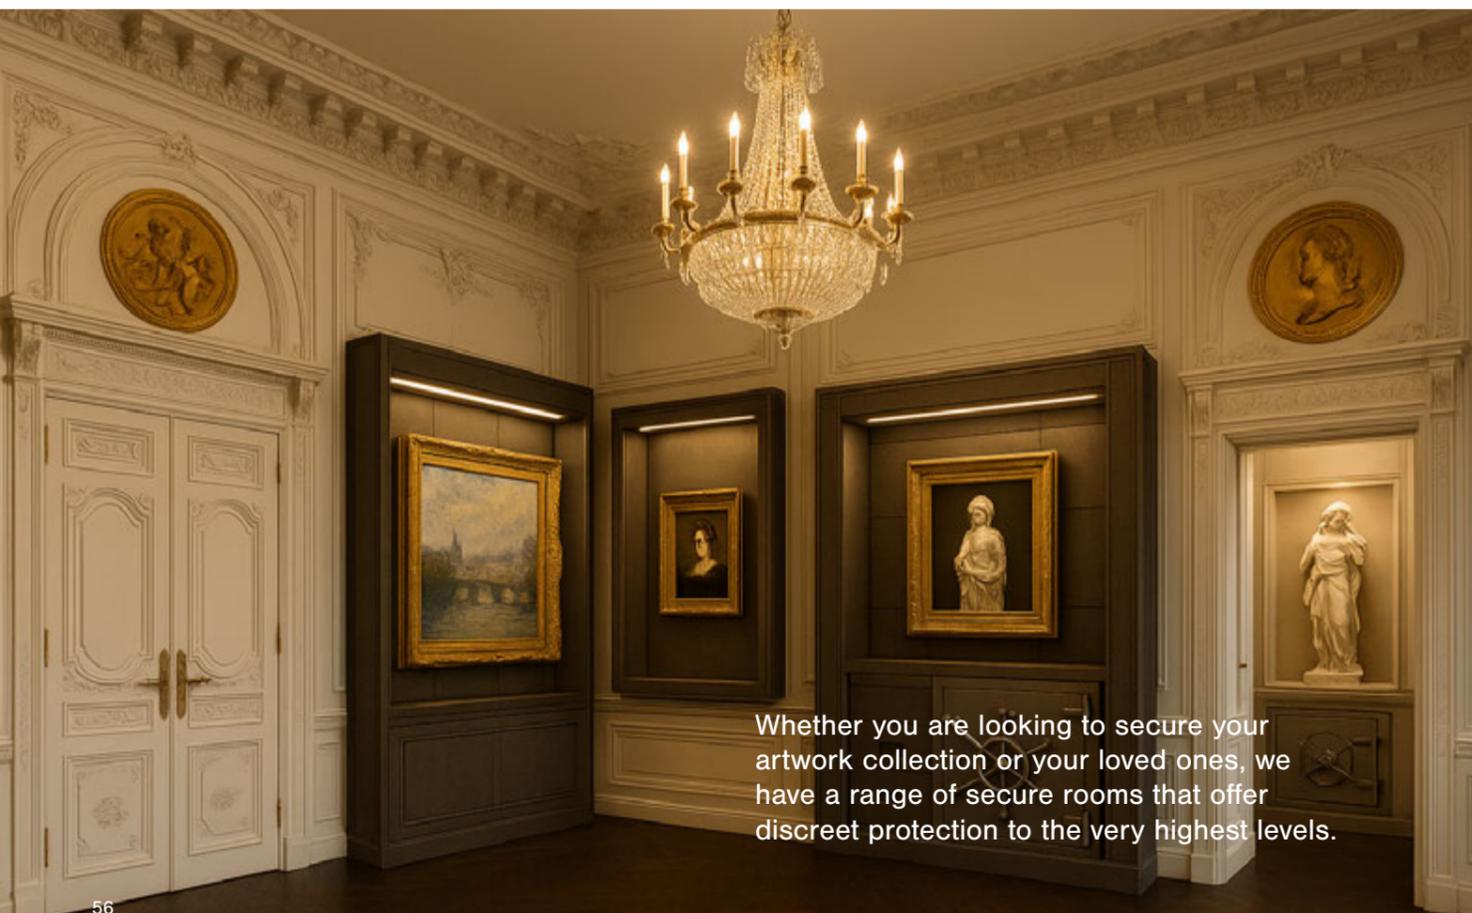

Panic Rooms Solutions

Luxuria panic rooms create safe areas for you and your loved ones, without compromising on style and or losing precious space.

Our discreet service is completed by a full in house team from initial concept and CAD design, through to production, installation and after sales service. We can guarantee complete privacy throughout the whole process.

We have designed a product to seamlessly blend into residential properties. It is both lightweight to allow for installation in upper floor bedrooms and dressing rooms and thin, so you dont lose valuable floor space.

Whether you are looking to secure your artwork collection or your loved ones, we have a range of secure rooms that offer discreet protection to the very highest levels.
